Task – 4

Part B: Social Media Do's and Don'ts Checklist

Social Media Do's and Don'ts for College Students

✅ DO's

#	Do's
1	Do keep your profiles professional – Use a clear profile picture and ensure your bio reflects your academic/professional interests.
2	Do think before you post – Ask yourself: "Would I be comfortable if a professor or employer saw this?" before hitting publish.
3	Do engage respectfully – Comment thoughtfully on posts, share meaningful content, and build a positive digital footprint.
4	Do showcase your skills – Share your projects, certifications, and learning milestones to build credibility.

5	Do maintain consistency across platforms – Use the same name, photo, and bio across LinkedIn, GitHub, and Kaggle for a cohesive personal brand.

✕ DON'Ts

#	Don'ts
1	Don't post inappropriate content – Avoid photos, comments, or posts that could harm your professional reputation.
2	Don't engage in arguments – Public debates or negative comments can reflect poorly on your character.
3	Don't overshare personal information – Keep private details like location, travel plans, and personal conflicts off public platforms.

4 Don't ignore privacy settings – Regularly review who can see your posts and adjust settings to protect your privacy.

5 Don't post during class or work hours – Showing that you're distracted or disengaged creates a poor impression.
